

Your Charity Partner for Engagement

Working with internal stakeholders to create a global environment strategy

Helping engage customer focus groups on sustainability

Employee cafe-style discussions, workshop and strategy reviews

Engaging retail champions about how the company can best support them

Bringing global business units and experts together to create a unified strategy and metrics

How We Can Help You

1

Design and run your stakeholder engagement activities

2

Provide you with training and advice

3

Help you continually improve by evaluating your engagement

4

Work closely with you as your charity partner. Extra support for you and your colleagues

5

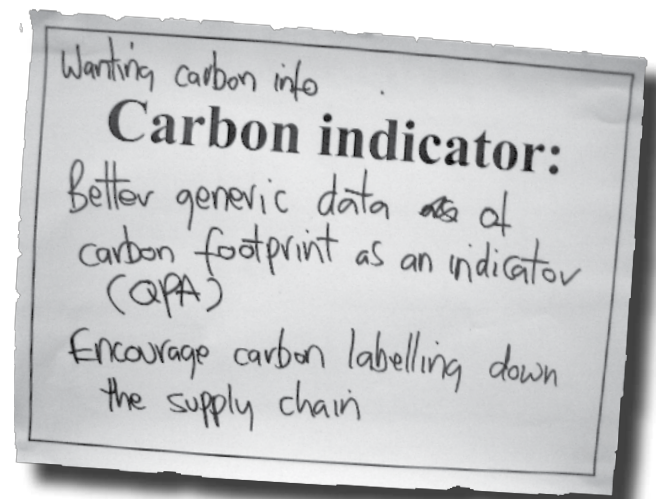

Help you resolve difficult or contentious issues

About Us

The Environment Council (TEC) is the leading charity focusing on stakeholder engagement to deliver a sustainable future. We apply the Principles of Authentic Engagement to achieve the best outcomes for you and your stakeholders.

Bringing together people in your communities to make well-informed decisions about resources

Helping understand customer views on CO₂

Getting your stakeholder engagement an A+ rating

Working with communities